FROM THE CHAIRMAN

ANDREW JENKINS

I welcome the directors, players, and supporters of Crawley Town to Brunton Park for this first game of the new season.

I also welcome back today all our supporters as we look forward to what will be a big improvement on last year as we now we have Paul running the football side of the club.

I comment on this every season, but some think that we just close up and go home for the summer. This is not the case for, as well as the normal season ticket sales and kit launch, we have to work on maintenance of our stadium to carry out.

As you may be aware, due to the age of the structure around the stadium a major part of the effort is to make sure the stands and buildings are safe for everyone who comes to the games.

I must thank Keith Potter (PMS), Steven Pattison and also members of my maintenance staff who have done the work on the buildings. Painter Ian Holmes, Galloway Carpets and John Heaney (EEC) have all buckled in to improve the interiors, and I must thank supporters and staff who have been busy painting terraces, etc.

The pitch under the supervision of David has had its usual summer treatment and is a credit to those carrying out the surgery.

The most important side is the recruitment of players and Paul, Greg and the coaching staff have all been involved in bringing new faces to the club.

I would like, and I am sure you will join with me, in thanking Paul and the staff for ensuring we stayed in the EFL, and wish him and them all the best for the future.

Peter Johnston has been adding new additions also to the much-improved catering at the club and you will enjoy the new provisions you will see today.

I must not forget Andy and Amy, our media team, who tirelessly do interviews and give us new stories throughout the close season.

Finally, I welcome our new commercial team of Debbie Huddart (commercial sales manager) and Kerry Evans (commercial assistant) also joined with commercial assistant Martyn Vevers. We wish them a happy and long relationship with us, together with our business supporters.

Really the last thing to say is let's get down to the serious stuff and get some points on the board to start the new campaign in a positive manner.

‘LOVE FOOTBALL. PROTECT THE GAME’

A message about anti-social and criminal behaviour

To mark the new season, we want to make you aware of new measures being taken across all of football to ensure everyone can have a safe and enjoyable experience. We are supporting strong action from the FA, Premier League and EFL to tackle anti-social and criminal behaviours that put all of us at risk.

This reflects the seriousness of the risks to fans and staff – pyros can burn at 2000 degrees Celsius and cause lifechanging injuries, while entering the pitch endangers players, managers and match officials.

We know those who commit these illegal acts do not represent the majority of supporters.

FROM THE MANAGER

PAUL SIMPSON

Good afternoon and welcome to our opening game of the season against Crawley Town. It'll be good to see Kevin Betsy and Dan Micciche again and I wish them well at their new club. I know they will be setting high standards and, like us, they'll want their campaign to get off to a good start.

This afternoon is, of course, what the work done through the summer has been leading towards but, along with the anticipation and excitement that the opening day brings, we also have to remind ourselves that it's the first of 46 league games, and our focus has to be on consistency throughout what is always a long and tough nine-month season.

That's why the pre-season programme was structured in the way that it was, to make sure that we reached good levels, heading towards a peak but with an acknowledgement that we can still push further, as we will need to do, as the weeks and months go by.

Credit to all the staff on the football side for their work behind the scenes in helping to put together a programme that has ensured we have stretched and tested the players in their training sessions, and during the friendly fixtures we have played.

And we must say thank you to all the staff working in other parts of the organisation to get the club ready for today. Their hard work often gets little recognition, although without them we couldn't make this happen.

The players also deserve credit for the way they have taken the messages and demands on board and we head into today, which is followed by a very busy August, with a sense that the group is in a good place.

We've talked a lot about shared and individual responsibility and, with the discipline and structure we've seen within the shape that we're adopting on the pitch, we're seeing good signs of an understanding of what it means to work together, and the benefits that approach brings.

As I've said before, this is by no means the finished product, there is still a lot for us to do, but it's encouraging that we're starting to get a sense of an identity that people can buy into and support.

There will be bumps along the road as we go on from here and we have obvious challenges to face. The key thing for me is that we do that together. We know that part of the responsibility we shoulder is to produce performances that will get bums on seats, so that the potential we all know is here at this club is realised.

There are no guarantees in terms of outcomes, but one thing we can guarantee is that every player will give everything they have every time they cross that line. That's non-negotiable. And with that we know you'll be behind us every step of the way.

Enjoy the game.

Goal – Nadesan (25)
Bookings – Nichols (41), Payne (68)

Crawley sparked an attack from the kick off with a ball over the top that Nadesan kept in, tight by the left hand touchline. His low cross was touched on by Tsaroulla and Whelan hooked it clear.

The Red Devils hit the woodwork on nine minutes when a training ground corner routine somehow made its way to Tilley. Francomb had completely sliced the initial 20-yarder, but that allowed Tsaroulla to bring the midfielder into play. A fierce effort from distance curled onto the post and the rebound was swept away to safety.

Crawley were gifted a goal on 25 minutes when Feeney miscontrolled on the edge of the area, with the ball stuck under his feet. Nadesan was on it in a flash and he left Howard with no chance as he smashed it into the bottom corner.

United looked to bite back and Dickenson robbed possession in his own half to set another attack in motion. Gibson received it, and he spun on the spot to find Mellish. Dickenson arrived on the edge of the box but he was under pressure and he dragged his snapshot wide.

A thunderbolt from Brennan Dickenson at the start of the second half brought a roar from the crowd. He took a touch, 28-yards from the target, and put his laces through a screamer of an attempt. Morris was beaten and relieved to see it strike the top of the crossbar.

Dickenson brought another save out of Morris on the hour when he sat deep to take over from Patrick.

It was low, and arrowed, but the stopper parried and the rebound skipped just past Gibson, who was looking to snaffle up the loose pieces.

There was potential disaster on 73 minutes when a powerful shot from Tilley was parried by Howard. He hesitated as he expected Armer to clear, and Tilley skipped in to try to nick it. An outstretched leg from the left back caught the heel, sending him to the ground, and a spot kick was awarded. Nadesan placed it, and he was left with his head in his hands as he crunched it high and wide.

Abrahams and Alessandra came on late in the day as the hosts looked to take something, and it looked like it had paid off when Alessandra timed a great run to meet a flicked through ball from Dickenson. He chested it down and had just Morris to beat, but the keeper spread himself to make a vital block at close range.

Alessandra → made immediate amends for his miss when he glanced his header from the resulting corner past the keeper to level the scores with almost the last touch of the day.

16-18 TRAINEESHIP PROGRAMME

Working in partnership with Warwickshire College Group and the EFL Trust, CUFC CST have ran several 12- week Traineeship programmes. The programmes are designed to give all 16-18-year-old NEET young people the opportunity to learn new skills and enhance their ability to find employment.

It offers students the chance to gain work experience in different working environments; in sectors they hope to gain employment/experience in whilst also improving on their English and Maths skills.

Students also take part in employability training to prepare them for work including CV writing, job search and application and interview skills etc.

Regular guest speakers are also in attendance providing the students with opportunities to enhance their knowledge on such things as:

- Money Management
- Drug & Alcohol Awareness
- Sexual Health Awareness
- Mate Crime

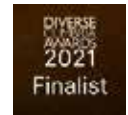

We have had some successful outcomes for students on completion of the programme, gaining employment and apprenticeships in various sectors including Adult Social Care, Landscaping and Construction.

One of our trainees even won the Nationwide EFL Trust Trainee of the year. This mixture of in-classroom learning, and work experience placements helps to prepare students with important skills to support their journey towards employment/training/further education.

If you are a local business/organisation who would be willing to support the programme by providing a voluntary work placement; please contact Teresa Mulholland on the details below:

Remembering our loved ones who are no longer with us:

CRAIG FARRELL

Craig was with the Blues for just under three years scoring 24 goals in 95 appearances, which included a fine introduction to Brunton Park with a goal on his debut against Torquay having initially joined the club for a one-month loan spell from Leeds.

A total of four goals that month prompted discussions about a permanent move, and that was all finalised in November 2002 when he penned a three-year deal for an undisclosed fee.

That first season was his best with the club, with 14 goals netted in 41 appearances, but a run of five goals in seven outings through March and April 2004 was part of a revival under manager Paul Simpson which almost saved the club from the drop into the Conference, and it was a peak in form which confirmed him as a favourite with many of the fans.

Boro born Farrell started his career with his hometown club before being snapped up by Leeds at the tender age of 15.

He went on to play for Exeter, York, Oxford, Rushden and Telford when he moved on from Cumbria and latterly had spells with Hinckley United, Blyth Spartans and Whitby Town.

FRANK CLARKE

Frank, one of five footballing brothers, was a top transfer target for manager Alan Ashman, who had seen the team struggle in Division Two through the 1972/73 season.

A formidable, strong forward, he had an immediate impact as he netted on his debut in a 1-1 home draw with Cardiff.

He led the line with aplomb as United defied the odds to clinch promotion to Division One, with 16 of the goals coming from the bustling target man along the way.

His finest hour in a Carlisle shirt came at the end of March 1974 when he scored four (one from the spot) in a 5-1 home win over relegation doomed Swindon Town.

It was fitting that he bagged the last goal of that season when United took the points from Aston Villa here at Brunton Park in front of 12,494 expectant fans, setting up a nail-biting finale with everyone in Cumbria camped in front of their radios for the Orient game that followed, on the night that promotion was confirmed.

Frank scored over 30 goals in just over 150 appearances for the Blues between 1973 and 1978, and also represented Shrewsbury Town, Ipswich Town and QPR over a career that spanned 17 years in the sixties and seventies.

CLIVE MIDDLEMASS

Sheffield-born Clive started in the game at Leeds, then moved to Workington, where he played over 170 games.

He worked as scout, chief scout and assistant manager at a number of clubs after he'd retired from playing, including

Bristol Rovers and Bristol City, Burnley, Preston, Derby and Everton.

One of his only stints as manager was here at Brunton Park between 1987 and 1991, having taken over a struggling outfit from Harry Gregg. He steadied the ship and flirted with the play-offs at the end of the 1989/90 campaign, missing out on the final day due to an away defeat at Maidstone.

A popular manager with the players, he parted ways with the Blues in March 1991 as his team struggled to make a dint in Division Four.

OFFICIAL DATA

Here we are back at Brunton Park for our first ever July EFL game. I say 'we' but I'm not actually with you this afternoon due to commitments with my Highland League team, Wick Academy, who also have a home game.

I'm looking forward to writing a page for the programme again this season and I hope that my jottings will spark a few memories for you. Maybe start a few arguments too!

My 'Connections' will not be so much with the away team but rather a look at some of the things that have developed around the sport and our match day experience – anything from club shops and new strips to midweek fixtures and floodlights.

The 22/23 season is built around the World Cup in November and December so I'll probably also look back and trawl my memories of some of the earlier tournaments.

Promotion and relegation in and out of League Two will see the return of six old adversaries but the loss of Oldham Athletic after a 118-year membership, and Scunthorpe who had around 70 years in the Football League.

The National League will be a tough environment for them. Six months ago we were nervously trying not to contemplate the same fate for United but surely we can now be cautiously optimistic and dream of at least challenging for a play-off place.

I have great memories of away games when the London Branch supporters and the far-travelled Cumbrians were singing a confident, raucous chorus of "E-I-E-I-O Up the Football League we go".

Today's visitors, Crawley Town, will also hope to be up at the top end of the table this time round. The Sussex club has been much in the news recently.

New owners Preston Johnson and Eben Smith and new manager

Kevin Betsy have been busy on and off the park. New signings include Dom Telford → who last season was the top League Two scorer with 26 goals for Newport County.

The backroom staff now includes a video analyst, a strength and conditioning coach and an in-house medical team. Fans in their area have usually supported Crystal Palace or Brighton but may well be tempted to take advantage of a 30% reduction in season ticket prices and follow their local team.

Former ESPN analyst Johnson was a founder member of 'Wagmi United', a huge consortium of mainly American entrepreneurs who now have ambitious plans to take Crawley up to the Premier League.

I have heard about crypto-currency but must admit that I don't fully understand how NFTs work. Crawley now have a third strip which they only sell via NFT.

Presumably the marketing strategy is that by making it exclusive it will become a valuable collectible.

Hard cash is still the currency on Warwick Road and when you bought your programme today from Barbara, Geoff or one of the other sellers, I hope you bought some Golden Gambles too. If so, good luck! £400 richer by 4pm?

Meanwhile up at Harmsworth Park watching Wick Academy v Keith, I'll be checking the updates from Brunton Park. Come on you Blues!

FOOTY RIDER CONTINUES

Carlisle United Football Club and Stagecoach Cumbria launched the Footy Rider match day scheme way back in 2012, and we're delighted to confirm that it is set to continue for the season ahead.

On production of a valid season ticket or match ticket at point of purchase, United fans will receive a 50% discount on current day ticket prices (subject to change, should fares increase, but the half-price discount will always apply).

Prices with the 50% discount applied are currently £1.85 for the Carlisle city area, £3.90 for the Carlisle Plus ticket (as far as Gretna, Brampton, Hexham, Wigton and Penrith) and £6 for the Explorer, which is essentially anywhere outside the plus zone.

The Footy Rider ticket offer will be available for every first-team home game for the whole of the 2022/23 Sky Bet League Two season – remember, this means supporters can travel on Stagecoach buses to the game for just half the price of a normal Dayrider ticket.

To purchase a 'Footy Rider' ticket, you will need to show the driver either ...

- a 2022/23 season ticket or ...
- a match ticket for the game taking place on that day.

The Footy Rider ticket will be valid on all Stagecoach in Cumbria services for the same zones as their standard day ticket areas, whether that is a Carlisle Dayrider within the city boundaries, a Carlisle Dayrider Plus from Penrith, Wigton, Brampton, Gretna and others or a Day Explorer from anywhere Stagecoach in Cumbria and North Lancashire run services, including Workington, Whitehaven, Keswick, Dumfries and Newcastle.

Timetable and fare information can be found at www.stagecoachbus.com
